

Black Environment Network

BEN Wales Networking Conference

March 18th 2009

George Hall, Guildhall, Swansea. SA1 4PE

We look forward to holding our first Networking Conference in Swansea. The conference will:

- Provide a focus for ethnic community environmental participation
- Share good practice
- Draw together different fields of work under the theme of environment in order to stimulate integrated socio-cultural-environmental projects
- Create opportunities for national and international networking and partnership
- Facilitate networking for expertise, information and partnership
- Raise issues of needs and concerns
- Attend to the development of knowledge and skills of network members through running workshops with themes nominated by the BEN Network
- A provisional programme is overleaf to give you a taster!

Attending the conference is:

Free for individuals and community groups

Travel and accommodation subsidies available

£90 for all other BEN member organisations

£150 for non-member organisations

You are welcome to join BEN and take immediate advantage of reduced rates or free places on the conference.

Please fill in and return the booking form A.S.A.P.

No organisation or individual will be denied membership or participating in the BEN Conferences due to a lack of ability to pay. This applies to all organisations. Please contact the BEN UK Office for details of BEN subsidies for the Conference and the Travel Briefing Sheet.

*Black Environment Network uses the word 'black' symbolically, recognising that black communities are the most visible of all ethnic communities.
We work with both black and white ethnic communities.*
